

1. Homeland security recommends that when facing an active shooter, the best defense is to fight then hide.
2. Most active shooters are men.
3. Most active shooters plan their attacks in advance.
4. If you have a choice to run, hide or fight, the best option is to run.
5. Active shooters always act alone.
6. When facing an active shooter, freeze and hope he will not pay attention to you.
7. Active shooters often carry more than one weapon.
8. When patrolling a post, you should continually rehearse in your mind what you would do if an active shooter were to attack.
9. The safest zone to be in is the shooter's 12 o'clock zone.
10. It is important to know where all exits, stairways and offices are located.

Answer Key session 1
1	False
2	True
3	True
4	True
5	False
6	False
7	True
8	True
9	False
10	True